Evaluate Your Purchasing Performance

Pratis provides an easy-to-use and flexible structure with its reporting and analysis functions where you can evaluate your purchasing processes and supplier performances.

With spending and budget analysis, you can control your expenses, compare all quotations and create statistical summary tables. You can evaluate your performance with your savings on purchases.

Create Customized Catalogs

By carrying your long-term purchase agreements to the catalogs, you can reach the product you need faster and you can easily send your orders to the supplier. While eliminating the offer collection process specific to demand, you can easily manage your operations such as order, product update and price control on the digital environment.

Pratis provides an average 14% price advantage for buyer companies and up to 60% savings in e-Tenders. *
